

Palliative Care - Transition to specialty practice- 2022

| Activity | Time period |
|--|--|
| Applications open for course starting April 12, 2022 | Dec 14 th 2021 |
| Applications close | March 15 th 2022 |
| Successful applicants contacted | On or before March 18 2022 |
| Students to pay for course | On or before March 25 th , 2022 |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Meet and greet TBA | Expectations of the course | Kelly, Anny, Carol |
| Late March – TBC Online orientation with Kataryna | Logging on to CNnect and navigating the system/platform Q & A from students | Australian College of Nursing Expectations of the course from ACN How to access the short videos by Kat on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Library and research skills • Research and inquiry skills • Lit review introduction • How to do your CPD record on reflective practice • How to do your Quality Project |
| Day 1 April 12, 2022 Introduction to specialty palliative care practice | Palliative Care is everyone's business.... Patterns of disease and decline using case studies Trajectories of illness Assessment (consistent language) Multi-disciplinary approach | |
| Day 2 (a) * May 10th 10 nurses each session Collaborative practice- Communicating with clients, colleagues and teams... | Communication skills workshop and working in teams (intensive workshop) Recognising, preparing and negotiating end of life care *Participants will attend one of these days (2a or 2b) | |

| | |
|--|---|
| Day 2b* 17th May, 2022 10 nurses each session Collaborative practice- Communicating with clients, colleagues and teams... | Communication skills workshop and working in teams (intensive workshop) Recognising, preparing and negotiating end of life care |
| 14th June, 2022 Improving practice- assessment and prognostication | Symptom management, including pain Assessment and management of side effects Priority populations |
| Day 4 July 12th, 2022 Improving practice: What should be done versus what can be done! | Ethical and legal considerations in palliative care (Bioethics in action) Working with diverse and marginalised clients |
| Day 5 August 9th, 2022 | Quality project presentations Grief – client and carer- panel discussion Care of Self |